

LAW CLERK

CAMRYN ANDERSON

U Colorado, J.D. (2026)

FSU, B.S. (2021)

canderson@stris.com

(850) 498-4371

Camryn Anderson represents plaintiffs and defendants in complex commercial disputes.

Camryn earned her J.D. from the University of Colorado Law School where she served as a Student Note Editor for the Colorado Technology Law Journal and Teaching Fellow with the Marshall Brennan Constitutional Literacy Project. She represented clients as a Student Attorney in the Civil Practice Clinic and competed in the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. Camryn returns to Stris after her role as a Litigation Fellow with the firm prior to attending law school.

During law school, Camryn served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Allison H. Eid of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and to the Honorable Sueanna P. Johnson of the Colorado Court of Appeals. She received her B.S. in Psychology, magna cum laude, from Florida State University.

Stris

stris.com